Bulletin Article • Reprint \(Dec 2023\)

Words cannot fully express how good God is and how good He has been to us. Our limited human language capacity is unable to entirely express the thanksgiving God deserves for all He has done. Nevertheless, we praise God and offer to Him thanksgiving in the most worthy manner we are able.

We should have a spirit of reverence and awe as we approach God. His goodness, grace, and mercy should cause us to want to enter into His presence in prayer and spend time with Him. When we consider all the things God has done, how can we not want to express our gratitude and surrender ourselves to Him.

For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to ask that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, for all patience and longsuffering with joy; giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins. (Colossians 1:9-14)

Lewis Parker IV., Minister
